Speaker
Celeste Cantu
General Manager,
Santa Ana Watershed
Project Authority (SAWPA)

SAWPA's new General Manager, Celeste Cantú, is no stranger to the region. She has been a staunch supporter of SAWPA's regional integrated planning and has encouraged other regions to follow SAWPA's model.

Prior to coming to SAWPA, she served as the former Executive Director of the State Water Resources Control Board in Sacramento, a position she held for more than five years. During her tenure, the Board tackled numerous challenges including the growing issue of salinity in water and irrigated land in many parts of the State and the protection of water quality in the Sacramento/San Joaquin Delta and Colorado River from which Southern California gets much of its water supply.

Early in her career, she was the Planning Director for the City of Calexico. Celeste later headed the Public Housing Authority for Imperial County. She then went on to a distinguished career with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the California Assembly before joining the State Water Board in 2001.

Celeste is a native Californian and has had a lifelong commitment to public service with extensive experience in local, State and Federal government. She is a graduate of Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government. She and her husband, Barry, have two sons, Jay and Jack.
