World Oil Peak: Out of Gas

Dr. David L. Goodstein

Each month, GIVE offers a $500 scholarship to those who enter the Green Idea Challenge and participate in a monthly symposium.

Individuals who are interested in participating in February's scholarship opportunity must complete one of the following:

- Write a 500-word essay or poem
- Create a video (3-minute max.)
- Submit a photo portraying the impact of the issue

Submissions need to address the impact of the current oil crisis and the harmful repercussions that will occur when the world's oil supply is depleted.

The Green Idea Challenge is open to the public and will be offered on a monthly basis on a variety of topics. The winners' names and their projects will be posted on the GIVE web site as part of the GIVE Leadership Academy.

An excellent opportunity to earn extra cash for school. Don't Miss Out!
